COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to further develop students' communication skills as a foundation for their academic studies in sonography at CURE. This course focuses on communication theory and develops communication skills for personal and professional relationships in interpersonal, group, and public settings. Course content includes practice in the application of the principles of listening, verbal and nonverbal communication and group dynamics. Students must earn a 73% or higher in the course.

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- Recognize the components of the verbal and nonverbal communication process and the types of acceptable communication in the workplace.
- Identify and apply active and critical listening skills.
- Recognize and apply techniques for effective communication and problem solving in small task-oriented groups and evaluate how people relate to one another in groups and teams.
- Understand the perception process and utilize self-monitoring skills to become effective communicators.
- Demonstrate the ability to communicate effectively in writing utilizing fundamental writing skills, identifying parts of speech and the effective use of grammar and proper punctuation essential for report writing.

OUT-OF-CLASS WORK

An essential part of every program of study, out-of-class work enables students to master course learning objectives and leads toward the achievement of the overall program objectives. Out-of-class work refers to self-directed learning activities such as reading assignments, research activities and projects, quiz/exam preparation, projects (individual), written assignments (papers and essays), knowledge checks and self-assessments, etc. Students are expected to complete two hours of out-of-class work for each hour of classroom instruction.

Late Out-of-Class Work/Make-Up Policy

Late out-of-class work will be accepted under the following guidelines:

1. It must be turned in within two business days (Monday through Thursday) after the due date.
2. However, out-of-class work turned in after the due date will be penalized 10% for each day it is late up to two calendar days after the due date.
3. Out-of-class work submitted after three business days after the due date will earn a zero.

Exams and quizzes - Make up of a quiz or an exam will be allowed under the following extenuating circumstances only:

- Documented illness
- Military duty
- Death of a family member
- Court appearance or jury duty

Documentation of the above circumstances must be provided to the Program Director. The ability to make-up a quiz or exam must be approved by the Program Director.

All assignments should be submitted directly to the instructor.

Classroom Policy

Our goal is to build a respectful learning and work environment that allows for positive communication and teamwork. To support your development, all students must abide by academic policies related to attendance, behavior and professional conduct as published in the current institutional catalog. Special attention is granted to the following items:

- There is to be no eating or drinking in any lab/computer class.
- There is to be no eating in ANY class.
- Cellular phones may only be used during class if/when advised by the instructor and required for a learning activity.
- All students must be in full uniform which includes white or black shoes at ALL TIMES.
- There are no rescheduled exams unless specified by the professor with advance notification.
- The determination to accept late homework assignments is made only by the instructor and occurs only in the event of extraordinary circumstances. If the professor does allow for an extension on assignments, there will be an automatic daily reduction by 10 points, each day beyond the original due date.
- All classes are expected to start and end at a predetermined start and end time.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

If you have a special learning need, please contact the Program Director. The Program Director and the Campus President will work with the student to identify reasonable accommodations/adjustments necessary to enable him or her to fully participate in the educational processes.

Professional Responsibility

Students are expected to aspire to the same high level of ethics and professionalism that is demanded of registered medical assistants. This requires students to conduct themselves as professionals and to fully engage in the learning process by preparing for and participating in all classroom, laboratory and clinical activities.

Attendance Policy

- Routine, regular class attendance is a requirement for this course.
- Promptness and dependability are the soft skills that garner special attention

Attendance Rubric:

- Students are considered late 10 minutes after the scheduled start of the class. Students who are late will not receive attendance credit for the hour(s) of instruction missed.
- Students are required to meet with their instructor and the Campus Registrar to discuss matters of tardiness or absence.

- Students are required to notify their instructor and Campus Registrar via E mail or voicemail to communicate an absence or lateness from class.

Attendance is taken each hour of class by the instructor and turned over to the Registrar before the end of the class day. Early departures, tardiest, and class cuts will be recorded in the attendance sheet and a proportional grade reduction will also be applied. A period of more than 10 minutes will be counted as an hour of absence. Attendance records are maintained by the Registrar as part of the student's permanent academic record.

Participation Policy

Participation is worth 15% of the course grade. Students will start with a full 15% at the beginning of the class. Students who actively participate during class will receive full participation credit.

Reason's students may lose Participation Points:

- Absences will result in a 1% deduction of their overall participation grade.
- Classroom participation without the required textbook will result in a 1% deduction of their overall participation grade.
- Cell phone usage during class for a non-class related activity will result in a 1% deduction of their overall participation grade.
- Refusing to or not participating in classroom discussion after being asked to do so will result in a 1% deduction of their overall participation grade.

Diagnostic Medical Sonography Program

The course syllabus is a general plan for the course; deviations may be necessary and will be announced.
